General Comments:	I was very impressed with your journals, your classroom performance, both live and taped, and your excellent reflections. I have every confidence that your student teaching experience will be a great opportunity to further your pedagogical content knowledge. Your professionalism is extremely refreshing. I also wish you well as you and your cohort deal with students who are constantly on-line. I have no idea how to make that work in the classroom, but I am sure you will find a solution.
